TRAVEL TIPS

When traveling to Zanzibar, consider these helpful tips to ensure a smooth and enjoyable experience:

Currency: The Tanzanian Shilling (TZS) is the local currency, but USD is widely accepted.

Dress Code: Zanzibar is predominantly Muslim, so dressing modestly is recommended, especially when visiting rural areas and Stone Town.

Safety : Zanzibar is generally safe, but it's wise to take standard precautions like safeguarding valuables and using reputable tour operators like JM TAXI AND TOURS.

Secure Your Belongings: Use a money belt or theft-protected bag when exploring towns, and avoid leaving valuables unattended on the beach

Night Safety: Stick to well-lit areas and avoid exploring alone after dark'.
Language: Learn some basic Swahili phrases like 'Jambo' to greet people before starting a conversation.

Photography: Always ask for permission before filming or photographing anyone.

Visa Information: Obtain your visa at a Tanzanian consulate before arrival, or receive it at Zanzibar International Airport.

Seasonal Planning: Consider the seasons before planning your trip, as Zanzibar experiences different weather patterns throughout the year.

Light Clothing: Pack light clothes but remember to include long sleeves and trousers/skirts for protection from the sun and to adhere to dress codes.
